

The State of Alaska, Department of Natural Resources, Division of Oil and Gas Recruitment
Notice

Policy & Program Specialist PCN 10-0143

Responsibilities:

- Analyze federal legislation and policy changes as they relate to Alaska oil and gas resources. Research and compose well thought out white papers and responses to federal rule making proposals and policies, to protect Alaska. It is essential that the state must get on record when oil, gas and leasing changes are proposed on the federal level.
- Write responses and recommendations for appeals for the division and the Commissioner's office. Research statutes, regulations, case law and division documents to prepare draft responses for appeals. Work with division experts when necessary to prepare drafts for the Commissioner's Office to use in the decision-making process.
- Evaluate, research and write regulation updates and new regulations as well as analyze regulation changes proposed by other state agencies and how they affect the division's mission, activities and processes.
- Policy analysis and drafting for the Director and Deputy Director.
- Legislative liaison
 - Work directly with division and department leadership to analyze, collect and write requested data, bill analyses, and fiscal notes. Prepare legislative presentations and answers to legislative questions.
 - Monitor legislation of interest to the division. Watch legislative hearings and summarize when necessary. Alert and inform senior staff as appropriate.
 - Prepare PowerPoint presentations to be used in legislative hearings as well as update a variety of yearly materials used during legislative session.
 - Work with senior managers to draft legislative proposals as well as repurpose proposals from previous years. If a piece of legislation moves forward from DNR and is endorsed by the Governor's office, work with the manager assigned to the legislation and the assistant AG to draft the bill.
- Monitor various news sources for stories relevant to the division. Make sure DOG management is aware of any controversial items
- Prepare or request materials from staff for yearly reports and materials and ensure continuity.

- Coordinate and review all Public Information Requests.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree
- Five years of professional work experience in a natural resources, legal, policy analyst or program analyst field.
