- Statutorily confidentiality period expired, well data eligible for and in preparation for release (see notes 2, 3, and 4)
- Wells with issued tax credit certificate, statutorily confidentiality period still in effect, not yet eligible for tax preparation for release (see notes 2, 3, 4, and 5)

Notes:
1. This map is intended as a snapshot of information that can be disclosed publicly regarding tax credit well data.
2. Representation on this map does not guarantee public release and is subject to statutory requirements to which the law of the state and federal government applies.
3. Release is subject to public notice and permission of private oil and gas mineral estate owner where applicable. Some datasets may be subject to several overlapping regulations, including state and federal. Some data may be withheld under the law of the state and federal government.
5. Year label on “Released” denotes actual release year. Year label on “Eligible” and “Issued” denote the year in which the data is eligible for release and distribution under AS 43.55.025(f)(2). Wells with issued tax credit certificate, statutory confidentiality period still in effect, are held confidential for 2 - 10 years from the completion, suspension, or abandonment of the activity that led to the issuance of the tax credit certificate (AS 43.55.025(f)(5)). Wells acquired with credits under AS 43.55.023 are not subject to disclosure under AS 43.55.025(f)(5) and cannot be represented here until their confidentiality period has expired.
6. Additional qualifying wells will be added to this map as new tax credit certificates are issued or as changes in confidentiality status are made.
